

Join the Uprising!

A Centennial Commemoration of the
Uprising of the 20,000

Sunday November 22, 2009 / 1-3:30 pm
IBT Local 237 Union Hall
216 W 14th St, New York, New York

Come see how 20,000 young working women rose up to make history!

- ★ Live music by Metropolitan Klezmer including period songs inspired by the plight of the garment workers
- ★ Screening of short film Clara Lemlich: A Strike Leader's Diary
- ★ Discussion with honored guests: Rita Margules (Clara Lemlich's daughter), Richard Greenwald (Triangle Fire Historian), and Bob Lazar (former ILGWU archivist).

Organized by:

The Education & Labor Collaborative
The Remember the Triangle Fire Coalition

Co-hosted by:

IBT Local 237
The Ruth S. Ammon School of Education
& The Department of History at Adelphi University

Endorsed by:

Workers United • New Labor Forum • Gotham Center for New York City History •
Coalition of Labor Union Women • American Association University Professors •
The Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation

Printing by Adelphi Service Bureau/ Local 153 OPEIU